Dear Trish:

Business is a cutthroat game, and few relationships last more than a few months or a few years. In looking back on the service your firm has given us, however, we cannot help but smile and wonder why we have been working so well together for so long.

We found each other when this company was just a small corporation, and you were working for Ducky's. Together we grew and prospered, each able to help the other achieve his business goals. And for our part, we certainly had a good time doing so.

Thank you for all your support over the past years. As our customers know, we have become a leader in our industry. But what they do not know is that we would have had a great deal more difficulty doing so without your help and support.

Here's to an even brighter future.

Sincerely,

Linda Wagner
